“The Looking Glass of Possibility: What’s in Your Outlook?” Monday March 10, 2008

*“What’s in Your Outlook?” The question may seem a bit simplistic, however, our society and culture try to color our outlook with promises of happiness and success if we buy and do what they suggest. In this workshop we will consider attitudes that build up and support a positive outlook on life while recognizing that happiness and success come not as a result of material things or the corner office, but as a result of living life to the fullest in Christian terms. Through presentation, DVD, reflection and sharing we will journey down our own life path to discover what’s in our outlook and what it means for us. Bring a journal with you so you can capture your own musings!
